

Changes to the Residential Agreement
Between IBEW Local 11 and LA/NECA
Effective June 27, 2022

1. Term of Agreement: The term of the new agreement shall be from June 27, 2022 through June 29, 2025.
2. Wages:

	New Amount
Residential Foreman	$41.25
Master Residential Electrician	$37.50
Residential Wireman	$33.00
6 th Period Apprentice	$25.25
5 th Period Apprentice	$23.00
4 th Period Apprentice	$21.10
3 rd Period Apprentice	$19.10
2 nd Period Apprentice	$18.00
1 st Period Apprentice	$16.65

There will be wage openers for the 2nd and 3rd years of the CBA.

3. Health Contribution: Employers shall pay the January 1st health increase for each year of the agreement as determined by the IBEW/NECA Family Medical Care plan (FMCP).
4. Scope: The parties agree renew the "five (5) story" limit in the scope of work. This scope shall sunset at the end of this agreement and revert to the prior scope, unless renewed by the parties.

Note: On those prevailing wage projects that may list four (4) stories as the maximum height for this scope, the prevailing wage requirements will still prevail. At such time that they may allow for five stories, then this provision would apply. Please be sure to check the specifications when bidding such projects.*
5. Section 1.12: The parties agree to renew the provisions of Section 1.12 (class actions) without the sunset provision.
6. Residential Wiremen who were in the classification prior to December 30, 2019 shall continue with their existing health and local pension contributions that were in effect through June 26, 2022.
7. All other terms and working conditions of the agreement remain the same.

For IBEW Local 11

Joel Barton
Business Manager
Date 7.6.22

For LA/NECA

James M. Willson
Chapter Manager
Date 6/27/22